BECKWITH PASS AND TIBURON.

The rumors that have been rife for several years that the Chicago and Northwestern and Union Pacific Railways were perfecting arrangements to reach this coast by way of Beckwith Pass have commenced to assume shape. It is an open secret that the latter road has made a complete survey of that route and it is only a question of time when the Southern Pacific Company will have a formidable competitor in the field for the railroad business of the Pacific Coast. It has been asserted and not denied that the combination will include the Donahue system, which owns and controls at Tiburon one of the finest railway terminals in the State. The fact that Col. Donahue is having constructed at the latter place one of the largest transfer boats in the State and the additional fact that within the past year or two he has constructed across the mouth of Petaluma creek one of the most substantial and costly steel and iron drawbridges this side of the Missouri river and is pushing the work of broadening out the Sonoma Valley branch of the S. F. and N. P. Railway, would seem to confirm all these rumors of a great transcontinental line passing through Sonoma Valley with its terminus at Tiburon. There has been but three feet of snow this winter in the Beckwith Pass at the deepest part as against 30 and 40 feet on the line of the Central Pacific, thus proving it to be the best route for an overland railroad line. This, together with the superb terminal facilities of Tiburon and the rich country through which the proposed road will pass, is bound to make the combination a most formidable rival of the Southern Pacific Company.

On account of the inaction of the Board of Supervisors in repairing the Alexander Valley bridge, this city is losing the trade of the farmers of the eastern portion of the county. When it comes to looking out for Santa Rosa they have long heads, for what is our loss is Santa Rosa's gain. On our next Board of Supervisors we want men who will have the courage to act for the interest of the county and not for Santa Rosa alone. Heldsburg Enterprise.

Political Notes.

Candidates for the various State, county and district offices have already made their appearance, and it is thought that the campaign will open this season earlier than usual.

Hon. Robt. Howe of this place, Speaker of the Assembly at the last session, will be a candidate before the Democratic County Convention for State Senator from this district. He will no doubt receive the nomination as he has been urged to run by his friends from all over the county.

Dr. W. P. Matthews of Tehama county, a prominent member of the last Legislature, is aspiring to the Democratic nomination as a member of the State Board of Equalization from this district.

S. I. Allen of Santa Rosa is not averse to receiving the Republican nomination for County Clerk. The report that he is a candidate for Sheriff is denied by the Petaluma Impress.

Capt. P. N. Stofen, it is pretty well understood among leading Democrats of the county, will receive the Democratic nomination for County Treasurer.

District Attorney Burnett will no doubt receive the Republican nomination for re-election.

J. R. Mulgrew will be a candidate before the Democratic County Convention for Sheriff.

Geo. F. Allen of Petaluma is being ingured by his friends to accept the Republican nomination of Supervisor to succeed himself.

In connection with the Superior Judgeship there are several names mentioned on the Democratic side, among others being those of Judge Rutledge, A. B. Ware and Judge Pressley, the present incumbent. On the Republican side Judge J. A. Barham is also an aspirant.

Mrs. Duhring, widow of the late F. Duhring, has petitioned the Superior Court for a family allowance of $300 per month and also to have a homestead set apart.

POLITICS HAS NOTHING TO DO WITH IT.

Our esteemed cotemporary, the Daily Republican of Santa Rosa, in its issue of last Saturday, intimates that politics may have something to do with the fight which is being waged by the local press against the Hall of Records and Jail scheme. We assure our cotemporary that in so far as the INDEX-TRIBUNE and the tax-payers of Sonoma and Vallejo Townships are concerned politics has nothing whatever to do with the matter. It is sufficient for us to know that the tax-payers of those townships have been opposed all along to the proposition on the grounds that the intended improvements were too costly and could be dispensed with for several years yet to come. Our farmers have had a hard row to hoe the past two or three years and are illy prepared at this time to have the tax screw turned on to the squirming point for what they conceive to be needless and extravagant improvements.

For the information of the Republican we will state that the INDEX-TRIBUNE has opposed the jail proposition from the word go—that is to say, from the time the matter first came up for discussion before a former Board of Supervisors up to the present time. The fact that one set of officials were Democratic and the other are Republican makes no difference with us. A faithful Supervisor is a faithful Supervisor, be he Republican or Democrat.

SONOMA VALLEY FRUIT ASSOCIATION.

The question of organizing an association of fruit growers in this valley is engaging the attention of many of our farmers, who have for years been at the mercy of San Francisco commission merchants. It is proposed to organize all the fruit growers in Sonoma Valley into an association with a regular set of officers for the purpose of shipping fruit East and drying all fruit not fit to ship.

The benefits of such an association are manifold:
First—It relieves the glut in the San Francisco market by sending a portion East.

Second—It will create concert of action in selling at good prices, whether sold in the East or in local markets.

Third—It will enable our fruit-growers to dry and grade in a uniform manner and under one supervision the products of the orchard which remain unsold.

Fourth—By this plan the fruit will be dried faster and cheaper and much better than under the old system of every man for himself.

Under the present plan all or nearly all of our fruits are disposed of in local markets and as each fruit-raiser is eager to dispose of the products of his orchard, the result has been that the dealers in San Francisco and other places adjacent to Sonoma Valley get our fruit at their own figure. With a seller representing all the orchards of this valley, as would be the case under the association plan, better prices would be realized for local sales and by shipping a portion East, good prices can be realized there and better prices here.

This project should commend itself to our fruit-raises, as it will no doubt solve the problem of profitable fruit culture in Sonoma Valley. This association plan has been tried at Haywards, Alameda county, and has proved a great success.

Preparation of Prunes.
A fruit-grower advises the dipping of prunes after curing in boiling grape syrup as a finishing touch, for the purpose of glossing them and giving flavor. We must disagree with this gentleman in the matter of dipping prunes. Grape syrup is very liable to render the prunes sticky, and give them the appearance of being "doped." In dipping prunes after curing nothing should be used that contains sugar, glucose, syrup or any saccharine matter, providing you wish to secure the best market price for your product.

There is nothing better than pure water used at the boiling point, in which a small quantity of pure glycerine has been dissolved, say one pound to ten or fifteen gallons of the water. This dipping solution will gloss the fruit, soften it and maintain it in a merchantable condition without rendering it sticky or otherwise noticeable. —Fruit-Grower.

The New Discovery.
You have heard your friends and neighbors talking about it. You may yourself be one of the many who know from personal experience just how good a thing it is. If you have ever tried it, you are one of the staunch friends, because the wonderful thing about it is, that when once given a trial, Dr. King's New Discovery ever after holds a place in the house. If you have never used it and should be afflicted with a cough, cold or any Throat, Lung or Chest trouble, secure a bottle at once and give it a fair trial. It is guaranteed every time, or money refunded. Trial bottles free at E. Wagner's drug store.

Five Strong Points of S. S. S.
1st. It is entirely vegetable, contains no poisons or minerals of any kind, and builds up the system from the first dose.

2d. It cures Cancer of the Skin. No other remedy or treatment was ever known to cure it.

3d. It cures Hereditary blood taint, even in the third and fourth generations. No other remedy has ever done it.

4th. It has never failed to eradicate Scrofula (King's Evil) in all its forms from the system.

5th. It cures contagious blood poison in all its stages by eliminating the horrible virus from the system, thus giving relief from all the consequences of this bane of the human family.

"My blood has been so out of order during the summer of 1888 that I virtually have had no health at all. I had no appetite; nothing I ate agreed with me. I was feeble, puny, and always feeling bad. I had tried various remedies without receiving any benefit, until at length I commenced on Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) That medicine increased my weight from 155 pounds to 175 pounds in a few months, and made me as well and healthy as any man now living. S. S. S. is undoubtedly the greatest blood purifier to-day on the American continent."

OLD TIMER.
Glen Ellen, February 25, 1890.

Wine Shipments.
The large increase in the wine trade noted the last year seems likely to be equalled, if not exceeded in the present twelve months, says the Examiner. The figures of the shipment of California wines by sea and rail for January are at hand and prove of especial interest.

In spite of the blockade and the stoppage of freight movement on the Central Pacific there were 251,654 gallons of wine shipped overland in January, 1890, against 225,396 in January, 1889.

The shipments by sea show a still larger increase. During the past month 27,620 gallons and 556 cases were shipped by water to foreign ports and 387,449 gallons and 44 cases to domestic Eastern ports. Regarding the cases into gallons this shows total shipments by sea of 416,569 for January, 1890, against 272,193 gallons for January, 1889. The totals by sea and rail were 668,223 gallons last month, against 496,594 in January, 1890, and 400,629 for January, 1888.

The showing is one full of encouragement to our wine growers. The increase of 171,629 gallons over the corresponding month of last year, in spite of a considerable rise in prices, indicates a steady growth in the Eastern demand. Better rates for freight may account for part of the increase of shipments by sea, but the figures are striking enough allowing for this. The increase of 868,574 gallons in the exports of 1889 over 1888 is likely to be exceeded by far this year, and the surplus of past years will be gone. The prestige of the Paris Exposition indorsement will add much to the regard in which California wine is coming to be held in the East and abroad, and assist in making a market that will take all our vineyards can produce."

For the benefit of those who abhor printer's ink as a prime factor to the advancement of their interest, we should say that Simson—the strong party—was the first man to advertise. He took two solid columns to demonstrate his strength, and several thousand people "tumbled" to the scheme. He brought down the house.—Ex.

NEW TO-DAY.
People Wonder
WHEN they find how rapidly health is restored by taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. The reason is that this preparation contains only the purest and most powerful alteratives and tonics. To thousands yearly it proves a veritable elixir of life.

"Mrs. Jos. Lake, Brockway Centre, Mich., writes: 'Liver complaint and indigestion made my life a burden and caused me ending my existence. For more than four years I suffered untold agony. I was reduced almost to a skeleton, and hardly had strength to drag myself about. All kinds of food distressed me, and only the most delicate could be digested at all. Within the time mentioned several physicians treated me without giving relief. Nothing that I took seemed to do any permanent good until I began the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which has produced wonderful results. Soon after commencing to take the Sarsaparilla I could see all.'

"We, the undersigned, citizens of Brockway Centre, Mich., hereby certify that the above statement made by Mrs. Lake, is true in every particular and entitled to full credence."—O. P. Chamberlain, C. W. Waring, C. A. Wells, Druggist.

"My brother, in England, was, for a long time, unable to attend to his occupation, by reason of sores on his feet. I sent him Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and the testimonials it contained induced him to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla. After using it a little while, he was cured, and is now a well man, working in a sugar mill at Brockway Centre, Australia."—A. Attewell, Sharbot Lake, Ontario.

Rest in the Open Air.
Dr. Oakman S. Paine is a great believer in rest, and thinks that, next to sleep, the most beneficial kind of rest may be taken in the open air. Talking of rest recently, he said:
"How rest should be taken depends entirely upon the person who is wanting the rest. If a busy man can sit still for a few minutes at odd intervals during the day and put away all thoughts of business and just dream for a few minutes, he will find that he would be greatly refreshed by so doing. There can be no stated time to take rest. One should never get so tired as to be compelled to take rest, and if the rest was taken judiciously and at certain intervals, one never would get so tired as to be compelled to go away for rest."
"Literary men, or men who do a great deal of brain work, require a great deal more rest than manual laborers. Physical workers only get their muscles tired. The muscles are much more easily rested than the brain is. Brain workers should take their rest in the open air. Any change of thought is a rest to a brain worker, and after he has been studying hard and exercising his brain to any great extent, a walk or ride in the country will be the greatest possible rest that he could have."—New York Mail and Express.

Waked Up Effectually.
A lethargic, dormant condition of the liver is hardly to be overcome by drastic cathartics and nauseous chologogues. A gentler, pleasanter and far more effective means exists of arousing the organ when somnolent. This is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, vouchsafed by the medical fraternity, tested by the public for many years. A resumption by the biliary organ of its secretory function, with the active attendant upon health, a return to regularity of the bowels, and a renewal of digestion, are the no less happy and certain results of using the Bitters systematically. Its laxative effect is never painful and drenching, its tendency being rather to perpetuate regularity than to produce a copious action. Malaria, nervousness, debility, kidney troubles and neuralgia it subdues effectually.

Workingmen afoot have made their appearance in this valley in large numbers during the past week. For the most part they are plainly but cleanly dressed and are eager to secure employment. # THE ROBT. C. JOHNSON ESTATE.

Nearly $1,000,000 Realized for the San Francisco Property.

That portion of the vast estate left by the late Robt. C. Johnson located in San Francisco was sold at public auction in that city Thursday afternoon. The total amount realized was $784,300, or $50,000 more than the appraised value. The sale was entirely satisfactory to the decedent's widow, who inherits the greater portion of the estate. The property belonging to the estate in this valley, Buena Vista Farm, is retained by Mrs. Johnson as her home. It is situated one mile east of Sonoma and is one of the handsomest properties north of San Francisco.

One by One They are Passing Away.

One by one the old pioneers of Sonoma are passing away. This week it is our painful duty to record the death of two of Sonoma's pioneer citizens. On Saturday afternoon last Henry Trueb, residing with his aged wife on Broadway, died of old age. The deceased had resided in Sonoma a quarter of a century, beloved and respected by his neighbors and friends. He was aged 82 years and a native of Germany. His funeral took place Monday and was well attended.

On the following Monday, P. Monahan, at one time one of the leading moneyed men of Sonoma, but who subsequently lost most of his means through unfortunate ventures, died at his home in this place of paralysis after an illness of only a few days. Mr. Monahan was a pioneer citizen of Sonoma, having located here in the early fifties. He leaves a widow and three children, Thos. F. May and Catherine Monahan, to mourn his taking off. Deceased was a native Ireland and aged 55 years. His remains were interred in the Catholic cemetery on Thursday in the presence of a large gathering of relatives and friends.

The Reclamation Project.

W. B. Pless, who has the contract for reclaiming a large body of tide and marsh lands bordering Sonoma creek a few miles southeast of Sonoma, informs us by letter that the compound bucket dredger which he is having constructed for this work will be completed in 45 days. Work of reclamation will then be commenced and will be continued for a number of years, as the undertaking is one of vast proportions and will entail the expenditure of many thousands of dollars. Senator John P. Jones is the owner of the land and it is the intention of that gentleman to sub-divide the land as soon as the same is reclaimed and settle families thereon. Sonoma will be Mr. Pless's base of operations during the continuation of the work.

Robbed His Benefactor.

Chas. Crofoot of the Glen Ellen Hotel was robbed of $100 last Tuesday night by a man named Brown. Mr. Crofoot had taken compassion on the man only the day before and given him employment in his hotel. On the night in question Brown invaded the room of his employer when he was asleep and abstracted the money from his pants pocket. The thief then disappeared and has not since been seen. He is described as weighing about 170 pounds, of dark complexion and wore a pair of blue overalls and plaid coat.

The Sonoma Fire Company.

A Good Man Laid to Rest.

The funeral of Charles Perez Douglas, an old resident of this valley, who died last Friday after an illness of three days, took place Sunday afternoon. The remains were interred in Mountain Cemetery and were followed to the silent city on the hill by a large number of relatives and friends. The deceased's widow and children, all of whom have grown to man and woman's estate, were present, except Mrs. Arnold Dulin, who is in New York.

The members of the family present were as follows: Mrs. Douglas, the widow, Mr. and Mrs. Hunt of Oakland, Jas. H. and Robert Douglas, of Vina, Tehama county, and John, Charles and Louisa Douglas of this place.

ONE BEER TOO MANY.

A Young Man's Matrimonial Venture and its Sequel.

Geo. A. Batchelder, well-known to the residents of this valley, is a persecuted man. For years he had resided in Sonoma, following the occupation of a carpenter. He was a hard worker, frugal and industrious and was enabled after years of toil in building himself a snug little cottage on Broadway, which he occupied as his bachelor quarters. In April, 1887, he met Mary M. Beer in San Francisco and after a courtship of only a few weeks they were married. He brought his bride to Sonoma, where they resided for a few months. His wife, however, was dissatisfied with country life and prevailed upon him to sell all his possessions here and take up his residence in San Francisco. After leaving Sonoma and seven months after the nuptial knot had been tied she applied for a divorce, on the grounds of cruelty. In June, 1888 she was granted the divorce in San Francisco and was permitted to resume her maiden name, and was awarded $30 per month alimony and $70 counsel fees. Mr. Batchelder, having been bankrupted by his matrimonial venture was unable to pay any portion of these sums and was sent to jail. He was subsequently released, but at the instigation of his divorced wife was again thrust into prison. One day, after being incarcerated for several weeks, he was taken into Court for another hearing and being lost in the crowded court room, walked off unnoticed and made his escape. This was about eighteen months ago. Shaking the dust of San Francisco off his feet, he made his way to Napa, where he secured employment in one of the planing mills of that city, and for a time he eluded the vigilance of the woman. Last month, however, his whereabouts became known to her and she again had him arrested and taken to San Francisco and returned to his old jail quarters. Last Tuesday he appeared in court for examination as to his ability to pay the accruing alimony amounting to $600. He stated that he had only been earning $65 per month when employed and that he was unable to save enough of his wages to comply with the order of the court. Judge Levy, however, before whom the proceedings have been held, did not believe his story, and Mr. Batchelder was sent back to jail and is still in durance vile. The whole proceedings are an outrage on justice and it is the opinion of many who have known Mr. Batchelder for years that he is a much wronged man.

Remarkable Family Longevity.

Our friend, J. J. Wytzyk, has just received a letter from Germany, his old home, announcing the death of his grand uncle, at the age of 101 years. The remarkable circumstance in regard to the death mentioned, is that he is the youngest of three brothers, Jake's grandfather who was the elder brother, dying at the age of 109 years. The other brothers' death occurred at the age of 98 years. Not one of the brothers had ever been seriously sick during his life, until death, the uncle just dead having died from the effects of la grippe. He had played the organ in the church of his native village for 82 consecutive years. Jake's grandfather was a soldier and belonged to the Guard Uhlan regiment (Lancers), and was engaged in the battle of Liepsic in 1812. Jake has also been a soldier, serving in the same regiment four years, including one year of the Franco-Prussian war, where he was in seven battles, and was wounded twice in the battle of Gravelotte. He wears the war medal of the Franco-Prussian war and the iron cross. He was never sick in his life, and bids fair to live as long as his uncle did.—Santa Rosa Republican.

Napoleon's Double.
In a book entitled "Etudes d'Histoire," which has just been published in Paris, there is a biography of the violinist, Alexandre Boucher, a man whose resemblance to the first Napoleon appears to have been something marvellous. In addition to his great talent as a fiddler, Boucher was a born actor, and often amused his companions by imitating Napoleon. When the king of Spain wished to choose the best among the collection of portraits of the first consul, Lucien Bonaparte wrote to him as follows: "Your majesty can make the choice by comparing those images, which are not faithful, with the living portrait of my brother that you possess in your court. When you look at Boucher you see Napoleon."

Later on the Empress Josephine wished to attach Boucher to the court of the Tuileries, but the emperor didn't want the fellow that looked like him, and wouldn't hear of it. At St. Petersburg Boucher was commanded by the emperor to give a concert in the Palace of Elaghin. The salons were filled with guests. At the close of the entertainment the empress, accompanied by her sons, the Grand Duke Nicholas and Michel, approached the artist, complimented him, and then told him to "do Napoleon." He pretended not to understand her. She insisted, and at last he told her that he understood her perfectly, but to imitate Napoleon he held him up to the indiscreet curiosity of the crowd, and possibly to make a laughing stock of him, was something that he could not do. "And remember, madame," he added, "that the hero is dead!" To overcome his scruples she invited him to her own apartments, where in the presence of a few select guests, chosen by Boucher himself, he consented to "do Napoleon." The prince wanted him to put on a costume suitable to the occasion. Boucher with an imperious gesture waved them off. "No masquerade! gentlemen," said he. "You wish to see Napoleon. He is before you!" With a proud and sad expression he gazed at the empress and the prince. Then turning to M. de Modene, a Frenchman in the Russian army, he fixed upon him a look of profound scorn that made the gentleman very uncomfortable. They saw Napoleon.—New York Sun.

Will Carleton's First Poem.
What may really be called my first poetic effort was written at 10 years of age, and was a letter in rhyme. My older sister was at boarding school; she had written for some of the papers and magazines, both in prose and poetry, and I thought I would show her that she had not carried away with her all the affluence of the family. I heard of a neighboring young man who could write letters in rhyme, and so I thought I would undertake the same feat. I did up everything at the farm and in the vicinity in choice doggerel, and mailed it to her. A precious young goose she must have thought me. I represented her favorite horse as about to die of melancholy, because she was not there to ride him; told her the trees and flowers were all perishing because she was not present to smile upon them, and killed off two very worthy and healthy neighbors because their names happened to rhyme with some word of a mortuary character. The whole letter was wildly sepulchral in its nature, and half amused and half scared the young lady. I remember that it closed with these pathetic lines:

I must and my letter
And bring it to a close;
Perhaps it will be better
To make the next to prose.
The eagerness with which she consented to this proposition made me fear that poetry was not exactly my best card. But she was a dear, sweet girl, and upon her return home I petted and encouraged my poor little rhymes much more than they deserved. The grief of my boyhood was her death, a few years afterward. She would have made her mark in literature, and I hope is today writing songs in heaven.—Will Carleton in Ladies Home Journal.

The Pan-American Congress.
The notion of the solidarity of America is one which has recently come into consciousness among the people of the United States, which has been the force of race and religious prejudices. But, from the moment of its first appearance, that thought has been borne in upon us with rapidly increasing power, until it bids fair to create a sentiment and even a passion of Pan-Americanism, which cannot fail to have the largest and most beneficial effects. It is, of course, natural, and it is proper as well, that the first discussion of our relations with our southern neighbors should have reference to trade, money, and the means of intercommunication. But our Pan-American propaganda should aim chiefly at social and moral relations, and should be pursued in every way which will tend to bring the people concerned to a cordial and unselfish interest in each other's welfare and in the harmony and prosperity of all the Americas. The sentiment of late Americanism that has appeared of late in a manner which, despite the interested efforts of subsidy seekers and cheap political jobbers, is so truly striking and so prophetic of good, could not fail to derive an immense impulse from a proper commemoration of the great occasion of 1892.—Gen. Francis A. Walker in Forum.

A Cure for Diphtheria.
The following remedy is said to be the best known, at least it is worth trying, for physicians seem powerless to cope with the disease successfully. At the first indication of diphtheria in the throat of a child make the room close; then take a tin cup and pour into it a quantity of tar and turpentine, equal parts. Then hold the cup over the fire so as to fill the room with fumes. The little patient, on inhaling the fumes, will cough up and spit out all the membranous matter, and the diphtheria will pass off. The fumes of the tar and turpentine loosen the matter in the throat, and thus afford the relief that has baffled the skill of physicians.—Exchange.

For Dry Goods, Clothing, Groceries, Hardware, Cutlery, and also everything kept in a general merchandise store go to S. Schocken's, at the side Plaza, Sonoma.

MISCELLANEOUS.

"There was a frog who lived in a spring. He caught such a cold he could not sing."

Poor, unfortunate Batrachian! In what a plight he must have been. And yet his misfortune was one that often befalls singers. Many a once famous voice among those who belong to the "genus homo" is utterly spoiled by "cold in the head," or on the lungs, or both combined. For the above mentioned "croaker" we are not aware that any remedy was ever devised; but we rejoice to know that all human singers may keep their heads clear and throats in tune by the timely use of Dr. Sayer's Catarrh Remedy and Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, both of which are sold by druggists.

Dr. Sayer's Catarrh Remedy cures the worst cases of Catarrh in the Head, no matter of how long standing, while for all laryngeal, bronchial, throat and lung affections, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is positively unequalled. It cures the worst lingering coughs and builds up the weak and exhausted, those who have been reduced by wasting diseases. It is guaranteed to benefit or cure in all diseases for which it is recommended, if taken in time and given a fair trial, or money paid for it refunded.
